TERMS & CONDITIONS

Received, subject to individually determined rates or contracts that have been agreed upon in writing between the carrier and the shipper, the property described above in apparent good order except as noted, marked, consigned and destined as shown.

The carrier agrees to carry to its usual place of delivery at the destination, if on its own route, or otherwise to deliver to another carrier on the route to the destination. Every service performed is subject to all the conditions of this bill of lading.

The shipper certifies that they are familiar with the terms and conditions of this bill of lading, including those on the reverse and in the applicable tariff, and that they are agreed to for the shipper and for the consignee.

Claims for loss, damage or delay must be filed in writing with the carrier within nine months of delivery, or within nine months of a reasonable time for delivery where no delivery is made. Suits must be instituted within two years and one day of written notice that the claim has been declined.

Freight charges are prepaid unless marked otherwise above. Where charges are collect, the consignee is liable for all charges and the carrier may withhold delivery until payment is made. Detention beyond two free hours is billable at the tariff rate.

The property is not delivered on the shipper's order. This bill of lading is a straight, non-negotiable document and is not a document of title; the carrier delivers to the named consignee on identification.
